Introduction and General Information

The State and Federal ADM Reporting Instructions is available to nonpublic school programs personnel as a guide for administering the state and federal average daily membership (ADM) including instructions and procedures. Both the state and federal ADM applications are submitted in the Nonpublic Data Systems (NPDS) program within the OH|ID Portal.

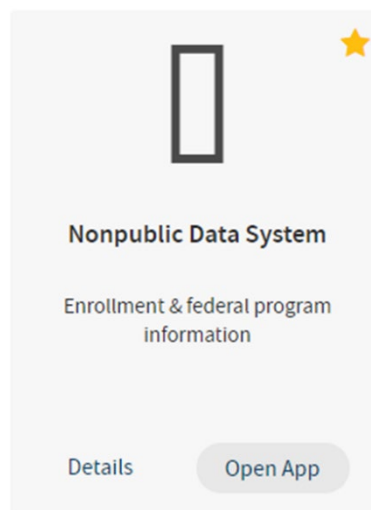

Instructions

1. Sign in to your OH|ID Portal.

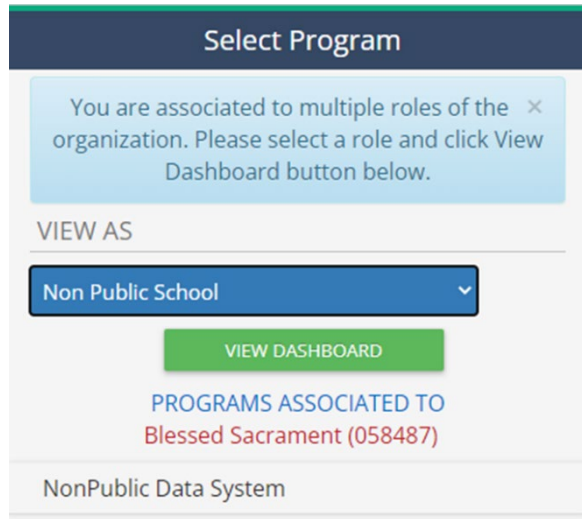

The screenshot shows the 'SIGN IN WITH YOUR SAFE ACCOUNT' page. At the top, there is a blue header with the text 'SIGN IN WITH YOUR SAFE ACCOUNT'. Below the header is a checkbox labeled 'Check if you are an ODE employee.' with an unchecked box. Underneath is a horizontal line. The 'USER NAME' field is a yellow input box with a cursor. Below it is the 'PASSWORD' field, also a yellow input box. A blue 'SIGN IN' button is positioned to the left of the text 'FORGOT USER NAME OR PASSWORD?'. At the bottom, there are two columns of links. The left column has the text 'Don't have a SAFE account?' above a blue 'SIGN UP' button and a smaller link 'Safe Sign up help'. The right column has the text 'Started sign up process?' above a blue 'CHECK SIGN UP STATUS' button.

2. Select Nonpublic Data System from applications (My Apps).
 - Only the principal and nonpublic data entry person named in OEDS have access.

3. On NPDS Dashboard screen, click three bars before Select Program (upper left corner).
 - Select Nonpublic Data System in left box.

4. Nonpublic school's Nonpublic Application Search page appears.
 - Your nonpublic school's name appears.
 - Under Status (right side), open drop-down box and click STATE ADM.

5. Under Result(s) Returned (bottom), be sure the fiscal year is correct: Nonpublic State FY 2024 - Federal FY 2025.
 - Click the Detail button at the end of the line.

7. Nonpublic users will have the option to import the list of schools used in the prior fiscal year. The nonpublic would then remove schools that are no longer needed and add schools for which you would like to report data. These are the public buildings that the students of your nonpublic school would be attending.

Click the button that says Add Public School. From the drop-down menu, choose the Public District. Notice the district name, IRN and county are listed. This will help ensure the correct district has been selected. A list of buildings associated with that public district will appear. Check the boxes to indicate the schools for which you will report data. You may choose as many public districts/schools as needed (see #2 below).

If you need to remove a public building, click the trash can icon on the right side of the row.

Once all public buildings have been selected, click Create ADM Excel File. This will create the Excel spreadsheet in which the nonpublic will enter the data (see #3 below).

The screenshot shows the 'Participation Selection' tab of the NonPublic Data System. At the top, it displays 'Program Selected: NonPublic Data System' and '052696 - Bishop Hartley'. A red arrow labeled '2.' points to the 'Add Public School' button. On the left, a red arrow labeled '1.' points to the 'Instructions' section, and another red arrow labeled '3.' points to the 'Create ADM File' section. The main area contains a table of school districts and public schools with checkboxes for selection and trash icons for deletion.

Equitable service amounts for Title III English Learners will take the number of identified students over the total number of identified students in the attendance area. For example, if a Nonpublic School has 5 identified LEP students and the district has 20 identified students, the equitable service amount would be determined by dividing 5/25 or 20%. The Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) requires the public district to determine an accurate count of children from low-income families who attend public and private schools and live in participating Title I public school attendance areas in order to allocate the proportional share of Title I funds. The public district should verify the low-income counts provided by the nonpublic schools. If the public district has concerns about the accuracy of the data, it's important that the nonpublic school and the public district work in consultation to ensure accurate data is provided in the NPDS participation tab. Ultimately, it falls on the public district to ensure that data is accurate. If a public district believes the nonpublic school needs to use an alternate method to determine accurate low-income counts, it should ensure that the method used is not administratively burdensome for the nonpublic school.

Quick Reference Definitions

Free and Reduced Lunch

The Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) requires the public district to determine an accurate count of children from low-income families who attend public and private schools and live in participating Title I public school attendance areas in order to allocate the proportional share of Title I funds. The most common way to identify low-income status for nonpublic schools are the forms from the National School Lunch Program. If the school participates in this program, they'll have forms that have been completed by parents for free or reduced-price lunch. Many nonpublic schools do not participate in this program. For these schools, the Ohio Household Income verification form may be used. The federal guidance allows a few other methods to determine an accurate count of low-income students. For more information please refer to question B-11 in the Title I, Part A Nonregulatory Guidance.

In NPDS, the nonpublic school reports the number of “Free Lunch or Equivalent,” and “Reduced Lunch or Equivalent” students for each grade level by public school building of residence. Then, the public district verifies the low-income counts provided by the nonpublic schools. If the public district has concerns about the accuracy of the data, it’s important that the nonpublic school and the public district work in consultation to ensure accurate data is provided in the NPDS participation tab. Ultimately, it falls on the public district to ensure that data is accurate. If a public district believes the nonpublic school needs to use an alternate method to determine accurate low-income counts, it should ensure that the method used is not administratively burdensome for the nonpublic school.

Eligible Students with Disabilities

Eligible students with disabilities are students who have been evaluated by the public district and found eligible for special education and related services. This means all parentally placed students at the nonpublic school who have been identified as having disabilities (through Evaluation Team Reports) as of October 31 must be included in the Nonpublic Data System report. The Evaluation Team Report must be current. This count of all parentally placed students with disabilities in the private school includes students participating in the Autism Scholarship and John Peterson Scholarship programs, resident and nonresident students, and identified students who are not receiving services. Students who were not identified as having disabilities through the Evaluation Team Report but were identified as being eligible for accommodations and modifications under a Section 504 Plan should not be included in this count.

The total nonpublic students with disabilities student count includes those who attend a nonpublic school in the district’s attendance area who are eligible for special education services with (served) or without (unserved) IEPs/ISPs.

The nonpublic students with disabilities count who are “Eligible” on October 31 are used for this NPDS data report.

English Learners

English learners refers to students whose home/native language is not English and whose level of proficiency in English (listening, speaking, reading and/or writing) is such that they are not able to effectively participate in classrooms where English is the language of instruction.

English learners are identified through a formal English language proficiency assessment.

English Learner and Immigrant Students: 20 USC § 7801(20)

Eligible students who are English learners and immigrant meet the following criteria:

- Immigrant students (not including foreign exchange students) are those students who
 - Are age 3 through 21
 - Were not born in any state (of the United States)
 - Have not been attending one or more schools in any one or more states for more than three full academic years.
- English learners refers to students whose home/native language is not English and whose level of proficiency in English (listening, speaking, reading and/or writing) is such that they are not able to effectively participate in classrooms where English is the language of instruction.

English learners are identified through a formal English language proficiency assessment.

Migratory Child

Migratory child: 34 CFR § 200.81

A child is a “migratory child” if all the following conditions are met:

- (1) The child is not older than 21 years of age; and
- (2)(a) The child is entitled to a free public education (through grade 12) under State law, or (b) The child is not yet at a grade level at which the LEA provides a free public education, and
- (3) The child made a qualifying move in the preceding 36 months as a migratory agricultural worker or a migratory fisher, or did so with, or to join a parent/guardian or spouse who is a migratory agricultural worker or a migratory fisher; and
- (4) With regard to the qualifying move identified in paragraph 3, above, the child moved due to economic necessity from one residence to another residence, and—(a) From one school district to another; or (b) In a State that is comprised of a single school district, has moved from one administrative area to another within such district; or (c) Resides in a school district of more than 15,000 square miles and migrates a distance of 20 miles or more to a temporary residence.

Immigrant, Non-English Learners: Students who are immigrants but not English learners.*
