

Summary Provided by Education Choice Program
Ohio Department of Education

March 2010 Aggregate Proficiency Level on Ohio Achievement and Graduation Assessments for Spring 2009

Data Source

Two sources of data were used to create this report.

- 1) Fiscal Year 2009 EdChoice students were identified by SSID from the EdChoice registration system.
- 2) Achievement level and grade were obtained from preliminary assessment vendor data for spring 2009 for nonpublic schools. These scores do not account for SSIDs that were misreported, rescored assessments, or any other data variations that can be corrected by public schools through their EMIS data submissions.

Process

- Unique SSIDs and resident school district IRNs were extracted from the EdChoice database for Fiscal Year 2009.
- The SSIDs were matched with SSIDs existing in the preliminary test vendor file for nonpublic schools. Assessment grade level and achievement level were extracted for the matching SSIDs.

Calculation

- Denominator: The count of unique SSID matches by resident school district.
- Numerator: The count of unique SSID matches by resident school district with a score of proficient or above.
- SSIDs with no matching assessment data were excluded from the calculation.

Understanding EdChoice Data

- Students participating in the EdChoice program must, by law, participate in the assessments required for their grade level (ORC 3310.03.2).
- To maintain student eligibility, nonpublic schools may submit evidence of participation in assessments to the EdChoice program office if participation is not already made obvious through SSID matching with preliminary test vendor data.
- Reporting of assessment scores or achievement levels by participating non-public schools is not required to maintain student EdChoice eligibility.
